WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

MRS. F. DENNETTE ADAMS (Ann). Virginia, a veteran Footlight performer, is probably best remembered for her wonderful performance in Auntie Mame. She has starred in many productions with both the Milton Players and the Hovey Players but it's good to welcome her back to Eliot Hall.

PHILLIP TROCKI (Peter). It's always a pleasure to welcome talented newcomers to the Club and Phillip is no exception. This is his first appearance at Eliot Hall but let's hope it's not his last.

MISS MILDRED ADELSON (Mrs. Adams). It's amazing that Mildred finds time to devote so much time and energy to the Footlight Club in spite of her busy schedule as Children's Librarian at the Jamaica Plain Branch Library. Not only is Mildred indispensable behind the scenes, but her fine performances in Majority of One and Don't Drink the Water, make her one of our most valued members.

MRS. THOMAS J. MCINTYRE (Mrs. Margolin) Kay took a brief respite from acting last year to add to her ever-growing family. She will be remembered on stage for her fine portrayals in Hogan's Goat and Plaza Suite and also for her good humor and enthusiasm backstage. It's always a pleasure to have her in a production.

DONALD J. SCOPE (Billy Boylan). There's always a little bit of magic in Don's performances as those of you who saw Lady's Not for Burning and Black Comedy will agree. His finest performance was surely in The Fantasticks but we know you're going to like him equally well as Billy Boylan.

PAUL J. MICHALOWSKI (Eddy Edwards). Paul is well known for his community involvement as President of the Board of Directors of the Jamaica Plain Neighborhood House and as President of the Sumner Hills Association and he is fast becoming a celebrity for his acting ability at Eliot Hall. From a priest in Hogan's Goat to a millionaire in Forty Carats, he always acquits himself admirably.

MRS. LEROY J. MANN (Maud Hayes). You name it — Maggie's done it! She enjoys working backstage just as much as she enjoys acting and she's done plenty of both. It would be impossible to list all of Maggie's credits but suffice to say that every performance she has given has been a delight. She says that every experience connected with the Club is "... interesting, rewarding and good fun". That's exactly what it's like working with her too.

MISS KATHLEEN DOOHER (Tina). Kathleen is one of our newer members and has brought a great deal of fresh, young talent to the Club. Her enthusiasm is boundless both on stage and at work where she is a 5th grade teacher in the Boston school system. She made a delightful debut with the Club in Life with Father and put as much time and energy into stage managing The Fantasticks. She is a very welcome addition to the Club.

MRS. THOMAS J. HIGGINS (Mrs. Latham). There isn't room to list all Kaytie's roles with the Club but she must be the only person to star in one production and then wash curtains for another! Off stage she is the Volunteer Director at Children's Medical Center and on stage she is both a joy to watch and an inspiration to us all.

THOMAS E. DUFFY (Mr. Latham). Tom's roles have run the gamut from the drunk in Lady's Not for Burning to a monk in Don't Drink the Water to the suave lover in Cactus Flower. Tom is always a joy to watch and to work with and he's been sorely missed this year.

LEE KRESSER (Pat). Until now Lee has confined himself to working backstage, so it's a pleasure to welcome him out front. When he isn't studying for his B.Sc. at Wentworth College of Technology, he is tinkering with antique cars or practicing on the piano. Off stage or on, Lee is great fun to work with.

PAUL B. KUSSMAN (Director). Paul adds Forty Carats to an impressive list of directorial credits for the Club. His previous plays include The Women — also starring Virginia Adams — and last year's very fine production of Plaza Suite. This year has been busy for Paul as he has immersed himself in our fund-raising program although he did take time out to organize our Bazaar last Autumn. When he isn't working at Eliot Hall, he is the Director of the Roxbury Crossing Community Service Center, one of the largest welfare offices in the country.
